2022 All-Kagnew Station Reunion UPDATE #11

Hello again,

As we hoped, the 2022 All-Kagnew Reunion is filling up very nicely. Unfortunately, this also brings the possibility that some may encounter “Sold Out”.

We have already exceeded our room commitment. Rooms are still available as part of our discounted package rate, as are seats for our Saturday group dinner. But the hotel also expects heavier than normal Fall weekends and may soon start to restrict adding to our room block. Please don't delay if you're still considering joining us.

A more critical issue involves the exclusive Kagnew Station Challenge Coins – we're very close to selling out! As of today, we have only 10 coins left, and production of additional coins will result in a higher cost with no certainty we can obtain them. Again, if you want your own Kagnew Challenge Coin, please don't delay ordering.

Finally, we are soliciting suggestions concerning a program for our dinner. If you have an idea, please share it with us. We first approached the local Speakers Bureau, what a shocker! Utilizing Bureau speaker entails a minimum $5,000 fee..., which we don't have.
