The dinner menu: If you have special dietary needs, please let us know ASAP.

We are also awaiting confirmation of charter bus fees for our Friday and/or Saturday activities.

We have committed to a minimum of 30 hotel room reservations for each night during the reunion. Based on past events, this is a conservative number. But please don't wait if you know you will be attending, additional rooms may be added based on the hotel's availability.

Also, we have received approval for our guaranteed room rate to be offered for those who want to arrive a day early or extend their stay beyond Sunday – subject to room availability.

If dining elsewhere than the Inn's restaurant, there are multiple off-site restaurants within the larger Opryland Complex.

Our next Update will contain a special reservation form that will register you for the reunion and define what events you want to participate in.

It will also contain an ORDER FORM for the Exclusive Kagnev Station Challenge Coin for those who cannot attend the reunion. Quantities may be limited, so if interested, please order one early.

Thanks for your understanding with the change in Reunion dates....

Stay well and travel safe,

Tom
